

Juniors advance to JBFC County Semi

Whitechurch provided the opposition for the junior footballers in the quarter-final of the county championship, in Kilmichael on Friday evening. Kilmeen took an early lead in this encounter and never relinquished it. They lead 1-05 to 0-03 at half time. However early in the second half they put the result beyond doubt with goals on the 43th and 47th minutes. Kilmeen were dominant for the remainder of this tie. The final score was Kilmeen 3-13 Whitechurch 0-04. Kilmeen now play Kilbrittain in the county semi-final.

This was a successful week for this group. On Monday evening they comprehensively beat Glengarriff at home in a league match. The final score was Kilmeen 2-19 to Glengarriff's 1-3.

U21 County Final

We wish our U21 footballers the best of luck in the U21 football county final which takes place on Friday 10th against Cill na Martra. This match will be played in Pairc Ui Rinn at 6.30pm. All support on the night would be much appreciated.
