

Kilmeen & Kilbree GAA Club Notes 1/10/18

Junior Hurling

The draw for the next round of the county junior A hurling championship took place last weekend. Kilbree will face Brian Dillons in the quarter-finals. This match is currently scheduled for Sunday 7th October in Brinny at 3.30pm.

The second hurling team played Argideen Rangers in Rossmore on Sunday morning, in a championship fixture. The Timoleague men lead by a point at half time 1-6 t 0-8. However, Kilbree never gave up and were victorious by a single int. The final score was Kilbree 3-10 Argideen Rangers 2-12.

Lotto

There was no winner of this week's lotto jackpot. The numbers drawn were 12, 19 and 30. The lucky dip winners were Dan O'Sullivan, Eily Collins and Breda Collins. The lotto jackpot is €4,200.

Minor Football

The minor B2 football championship final between Kilmeen and St Colums was played in Enniskeane on Saturday evening. This was a most exciting, close match from the start. An early goal by St Colums gave Kilmeen a bad start but five points by Jamie Santry and Jack Murphy in the first half, ensured the sides were level at half time with five points each.

St Colums were awarded a penalty early in the second half which they converted. Three additional points gave the Keakill side a six point advantage. However Kilmeen dug deep and scores by Cian Murphy, Brian Deasy and Jack Murphy gave Kilmeen another day out to fight for the minor title. The final score was Kilmeen 1-9 St Colums 2-6. Please check locally for details in relation to this replay.

Team: Kieran O'Sullivan, Mark Tobin, Jamie O'Donovan, Cian Murphy, Thomas Tyner, Conor Hurley, Killian O'Driscoll, Conor Carmody, Jack Murphy, Brian Deasy, Cathal Dineen, Jamie Santry, Paul Lyons, Sean Crowley, Mark Keohane, Darren Scannell, Thomas O'Sullivan, Brian Carmody and Gearoid Hayes.

U14 Football

The U14 footballers played Adrigole in Kealkill on Sunday afternoon in the U14 B2 football championship final. This was a very exciting affair from the very start. Both sides scored two early goals, Kilmeen's Conor O'Sullivan and Oisín O'Sullivan finding the net. Joe Bailey and Conor O'Sullivan added two fine points each. The half-time score was Kilmeen 2-4 Adrigole 2-7.

Oisín Harrington, Cillian Twohig and Oisín O'Sullivan scored 2-3 between them in the second half. There was only one point between the sides mid-way through the second half. However, Adrigole finished stronger in the final quarter and were victorious on this occasion. The final score was Kilmeen 4-7 Adrigole 4-15.

Well done to all the players and mentors involved in the U14 panel, they are a young side and no doubt will be competing at the business end of the season in 2019.

U12 Hurling

On Monday night, the U12 hurlers were delighted to win the U12 hurling shield. They played Bandon in Rossmore. An early penalty awarded to Kilbree was converted by Cillian Twohig. Another goal and three points by Cillian Twohig and a goal by Joe Barry gave Kilbree an advantage at half time. The half-time score was Kilbree 3-3 Bandon 1-1.

Bandon scored three points early in the second half but Kilbree dominated for most of this match. Some fine defensive work by Kilbree's defence kept Bandon at bay. The final score was Kilbree 3-9 Bandon 1-4. There were great scenes of celebration at the final whistle. Well done to everyone on this team and their mentors.
