

Kilmeen & Kilbree GAA Club Notes 10/9/18

Junior Hurling

The junior hurlers had a great win over St James on Sunday evening. This was a very exciting affair. Kilbree dominated the first half, assisted by the wind and lead 1-9 to 0-2 at half time. However, St James were the dominant force in the second half and Kilbree were lucky to win by a single point. The final score was Kilbree 1-15 St James 2-11.

The final will be played on Sunday 16th in Ballinacarriga. Kilbree will attempt to win the “Flyer Nyhan” for the second time in three years when they play Ballinascarthy.

Camogie

Last weekend was a very exciting weekend for Kilbree Camogie Club. Six of Kilbree’s U14’s Mary Murphy, Kate O’Donovan, Emily O’Donovan, Maeve O’Neill, Heather Brimble and Caoimhe Murphy played with Cork U14’s in the All-Ireland finals in Dublin. Kate O’Donovan was on the Cork team that defeated Laois in the Roisin McManus All-Ireland final. All of the girls were thrilled to parade around Croke Park on Sunday with the U14 squads from all other counties. This cohort of girls have had a wonderful year, representing their club and county at matches all over Ireland.

Minor Football

The minor footballers played Uibh Laoire in the first round of championship, in Castletownkenneigh on Tuesday. The first half of this game was close, the difference between the sides being a goal by Paul Lyons, just before half time. Kilmeen lead at half time by 2-5 to 1-5. Kilmeen dominated more in the second half and scores by Jamie Santry and Brian Deasy ensured that Kilmeen had a reasonably comfortable win. The final score was Kilmeen 3-10 Uibh Laoire 1-9.

U12 Hurling

The U12 hurling final took place on Monday evening. Kilbree took on Argideen Rangers in Rossmore. Previous outings between these two sides have been exciting close affairs. The Timoleague team dominated for much of this match but the Kilbree boys never gave up. Some fine saves by Peter O'Sullivan, good defensive work by Sam Bailey, Rory McCarthy and Olan Murphy and some great scores by Cillian Twohig and Howard O'Donovan, kept Kilbree in touch. At the final whistle, the score was Argideen Rangers 5-9 Kilbree 3-6.

Lotto

There was no winner of this week's lotto jackpot. The numbers drawn were 20, 22 and 26. The lucky dip winners were Denis Dullea, Muriel Cronin and John Joe O'Leary. Next week's jackpot will be €4,100.
