

Kilmeen & Kilbree GAA Club Notes 24/9/18

Junior Hurling

Fresh from the winning of the “Flyer Nyhan” last weekend, Kilbree’s junior hurlers had to turn their attention to the county series. Kilbree were drawn against Ballinora in the first round in Cloughduv, on Saturday afternoon.

Kilbree settled into the game better than the opposition. A goal by Don McCarthy mid-way through the first half put some distance between the teams. Kilbree lead 1-10 t 0-7 at half time.

Kilbree kept their six point advantage for much of the second half. Ballinora had a couple of goal chances but Kilbree’s defence and goalkeeper Denis Dullea kept scoring chances to a minimum. Points by Kevin Keohane and captain Dylan Coffey closed out this encounter for Kilbree. The final score was Kilbree1-17 Ballinora 0-13.

Camogie

Kilbree U12’s played a most entertaining and close match against Brian Dillons on Saturday, in Rossmore. While the city side were the winners on the day, there was very little between these two sides. Well done to everyone involved.

Kilbree U16’s travelled to Tracton on Sunday morning to play the next round of the U16(A) county championship against the local side. The sides were level at half time. Kilbree had to play against a very strong wind in the second half. The second half was a fierce battle, every girl had to give it everything. Some fine saves by Heather Brimble and a couple of goals by Maeve O'Neill ensured that Kilbree were the winners on the day. The final score was Kilbree 2-6 Tracton 0-10.

U14 Football

The U14 footballers made the journey to Kealkill on Monday night to play Urhan in the football championship semi-final. The first half was very closely contested, Kilmeen were slow to start and lead by a single point at half time.

In terrible wet conditions, Kilmeen really got going in the second half. Goals by the Kilmeen boys put a distance between the two sides. The final score was Kilmeen 4-12 Urhan 1-4. The U14's have now qualified for a West Cork Final against Adrigole.

Lotto

There was no winner of this week's lotto jackpot. The numbers drawn were 5, 12 and 22. The lucky dip winners were Josie McCarthy, Mike Casey and Cathal Duggan. The lotto jackpot is €4,200.
