

Rossmore Variety Show a huge community and club success!

The Rossmore Variety Show was a sell-out success last weekend, running on Friday 12th, Saturday 13th and Sunday 14th. This show was run as a fundraiser for Kilmeen & Kilbree GAA Club. The show was the brainchild of Nora Scannell (director). She was ably assisted by Claire Collins (assistant director). The show was a huge success for the community of Rossmore. Community spirit is very definitely alive and well. Over one hundred people were involved in the cast. Another twelve people were involved backstage.

Dance, song, drama and music acts were performed. All audiences thoroughly enjoyed the action packed entertainment. The show ran for four sell out nights. Thanks to Nora Scannell and Claire Collins for directing this incredible show. Thanks to each and every one of the cast, backstage crew lead by Ger Collins, booking office management by Rosarie Murphy and Connie Murphy, the set crew lead by Connie Murphy, Padhraic Reilly and John Keohane, Denis O'Donovan for lighting, Ian Flavin and Kirk Girdwood for sound, Rosaleen Beechinor for make-up and Gavin Twohig for leading up the front of house crew. Thanks to everyone that provided refreshments on a nightly basis at the intervals and after the shows. Thanks to those who helped with parking on a nightly basis. Thanks to Kilmeen Drama Group for their support. Thanks to all sponsors and those who supported the show in any way. Thanks to the amazing audiences who filled the house every night.
