

Kilmeen & Kilbree GAA Club Notes 25/3/18

The Kilbree U14 camogie team had a most successful day at Feile on Saturday. Kilbree are competing in the “A” grade the highest grade in the county. Their group stage was held in Aghabullogue on Saturday morning. While weather conditions were fine, ground conditions were very heavy and difficult. Kilbree played Tracton, Aghabullogue and Inniscarra and qualified for the next round of Feile, a quarter final against St Finbarr’s. This quarter-final will be played in the next week. This is an incredible achievement for the girls. It is their first time competing in the “A” grade and they are now down to the last six Feile teams in the highest grade in the county.

Team: Heather Brimble, Ava Murray, Kate O’Donovan, Cara Collins, Margaret Collins, Rachel Deasy, Orlagh O’Neill Callanan, Emily O’Donovan, Mary Murphy, Maeve O’Neill, Caoimhe Murphy, Lucy Collins, Alison Collins and Emer O’Connell.

Congratulations to Kilbree U14’s Kate O’Donovan, Caoimhe Murphy and Rachel Deasy who won the county basketball championship with Sacred Heart Secondary School. They comprehensively defeated Charleville in the final and were delighted to play the final in Neptune Stadium, the home of Cork basketball.

The minor footballers opened their league campaign against St Colums on Sunday, in Kealkill. A strong Kilmeen performance in the first half set up a victorious start to the year. St Colums rallied in the second half and brought the deficit down to three points at the final whistle. The final score was Kilmeen 1-14 St Colums 3-5.

Team: Jamie O’Donovan, Mark Tobin, Killian O’Driscoll, Paul Lyons, Thomas Tyner, Cian Murphy, Mark Keohane, Conor Hurley, Jack Murphy, Cathal Dineen, Jamie Santry, Darren Scannell, Kieran O’Sullivan and Sean Crowley.

The junior hurlers were also in action against St Colums in Kealkill, on Sunday morning. A very strong first half performance ensured a successful outcome to this tie. The final score was Kilbree 2-13 St Colums 1-7.

There was no winner of this week’s lotto jackpot. The numbers drawn were 4, 5 and 19. The lucky dip winners were Ray Harrington, Paudie O’Donovan and Donald Kelly. This week’s lotto jackpot is €1,700.
