Disappointment for U14 Hurlers!

U14 hurling final

The U14 C final was played in Ballinacarriga on Tuesday last, in glorious weather conditions. Kilbree had defeated Bantry to reach this stage while St Patrick's had defeated Ahan Gaels. St Patrick's made the brighter start with two points from play by Liam O'Donovan. However a goal by Kilbree's Ryan Jennings put Kilbree in front. A point by Cian Murphy and great goals by Mark Keohane and Jack Murphy kept Kilbree's hopes alive. Despite having many wides, St Patrick's Colm Crowley, Jason Nott and Liam O'Donovan took some fine points. The half-time score was St Patrick's 1-9 to Kilbree's 3-2.

St Patrick's were the stronger side in the second half. Kilbree's full-back Cian Murphy caught and cleared an incredible amount of ball. Jack Murphy fought hard in midfield adding another goal and a point to his tally for the night. However, further St Patrick's scores by Jason Nott, Colm Crowley, Liam O'Donovan, Oisín Daly and Michael Sheehy, in particular well taken points, made the difference on the night.

Camogie

The U14 camogie team continue their good run of form in the league. On Monday evening, they welcomed St Colums to Rossmore. This U14 squad is a very young one, the majority of its members are still U12. The Kilbree half-back line dominated from the outset, preventing St Colums from scoring throughout this game. Some great displays of skill by Mairead Crowley, Leanne Sheehy, Emily O'Donovan, Kate O'Donovan and Caoimhe Murphy ensured the Kilbree girls stayed on top. The final score was Kilbree 7-7 to St Colum's 0-0. Nemo provide the next opposition for this group of girls. The U12 girls have Kilbrittain/Timoleague as the opposition in their next league outing.
